

the archangel

the dungeon

MONT-SAINT-MICHEL

Perching on top of its rock, Mont-Saint-Michel overlooks the bay, which follows the rhythm of the tides. It is one of the most visited monuments in France. Dating back to the 8th century, this centre of pilgrimage was built throughout successive periods. During your visit, you will get the chance to admire beautiful places, eat a crêpe, do some fishing, go back in time to meet incredible characters and creatures and most of all, enjoy yourself! So get ready to start!

Find the correct spot for each of the stickers showing the places you will see in the book.

the cloister

the dragon

the knight Du Guesclin

the refectory

the street

the Knights' room

the house of Artichoke

the quicksand

Mont-Tombe

crêpe time

the maringote

